SHELF LIST

INTRODUCTION

---

This little booklet is intended as a handy reference for direct blood lines of the families contained herein. The families are arranged alphabetically and each page or section of a page follows a single line of family descent line down from generation to generation. Usually the last name at the lower left of page is that of a bride whose name was changed to that of the husband to her right. The reader should then turn to the page headed by the husband's name.

In preparing this booklet it became necessary, because of lack of space, to omit many interesting lines such as the Berkeleys, Brays, Calthorpes, Forsters, Greys, St. Johns, Umfravilles, and Wentworths.

Dates have been kept to a minimum, as many of the lines here given are already available in print in the standard reference works. If the material here presented can be of assistance to others working in the field of genealogy, the author's aim will have been achieved. The merit of the booklet, if it has any, lies in the fact that it sets forth some of the blood lines of Europe now in the U. S. A.
